Section 30-522 (6) of the Marco Island Land Development Code

Political campaign signs and posters shall be permitted subject to the following requirements:

- a. Prior to the erection, installing, placing, or displaying of a political sign a bulk temporary permit shall be obtained by a candidate.
- b. Political campaign signs or posters four square feet or less in size, shall be permitted in all zoning districts. Such signs and posters shall be located a minimum of 18 inches from the upland side of the sidewalk (or the property line if no sidewalk exists) and shall not exceed four feet in height.
- c. Larger political campaign signs or posters may be permitted in all non-residential zoning districts including the Residential Tourist zoning district. Such signs shall have a maximum copy area of 40 square feet per sign, shall be limited to eight feet in height, and shall be located no closer than 15 feet to any property line.
- d. The number of political campaign signs or posters shall be limited to one sign for each lot or parcel per bulk permit issued for each candidate or issue. Political signs placed within the City shall require a candidate to obtain written permission from the property owner.
- e. All supports shall be securely built, constructed and erected to conform with the requirements of this code.
- f. Political signs shall not be erected more than 60 calendar days prior to an election or political event and shall be removed within seven calendar days after the election, event, or after the campaign issue has been decided.
- g. Political signs may not be placed on any city right-of-way.
